

Fourth International Tax Conference
Taxes of Tomorrow.
Directions of tax law development in European countries
18 September 2026

Conference Schedule

9:00–9:20: Registration and Conference Opening

9:20–9:40: Diego Conte, Tax certainty as a fundamental element of a competitive tax system

9:40–10:00: Ewelina Majewska-Howis, Pillar Two in Practice: Lessons from Implementing Global Minimum Tax Across 40 Jurisdictions

10:00–10:20: Helena Bogdanowska, The Black Box of Tax Administration: AI, Algorithmic Decisions and Taxpayer Rights

10:20–10:40: Magnus Kristoffersson, When AI Becomes a Better Tax Judge: Why Humans Still Matter

10:40–11:00: Break

11:00–11:20: Álvaro Antón Antón, The Legal Design of Carbon Pricing in the European Union: Coordination Challenges in a Multi-Instrument Framework

11:20–11:40: Anna Derdak, Property tax as a catalyst for sustainable transformation

11:40–12:00: Szymon Lipiński, Proposal for a Multilateral Tax Instrument to Combat Climate Change (Climate MLI)

12:00–12:20: Stoycho Dulevski, Tax Administration – challenge and/or opportunity

12:20–12:40: Break

12:40–13:00: Filip Majdowski, Pillar Two after the direct Tax Omnibus: simplification or a new anti-abuse architecture?

13:00–13:20: Rafał Lipniewicz, Permanent establishment in the age of artificial intelligence

13:20–13:40: Jakub Jankowski, The evolution of non-genuine arrangement concept in EU Law after Nordcurrent and Neogroup

13:40–14:00: Katarzyna Smoleń, Transparency after the Global Minimum Tax: DAC Recast and the Repositioning of Pillar Two in EU Administrative Cooperation

14:00–14:20: Break

14:20–14:40: Mikołaj Kondej, No Smoke, No Fire, Still Guilty: The Beneficial Owner concept

14:40–15:00: Bartosz Kubista, Metaverse Taxation After the Hype: Is It Still a Problem for European Tax Law?

15:00–15:30: Błażej Kuźniacki, Digitalisation and Major Tax Related Controversies